Dear Counsel

Re: In the Matter of Fourworld Global Opportunities Fund Ltd et al v Enstar Group Limited
Civil Jurisdiction - Commercial Court 2024 : No. 333

In the Matter of Harspring Capital, LP et al v Enstar Group Limited
Civil Jurisdiction - Commercial Court 2024 : No. 334

We write further to your letter dated 15 March 2025 enclosing a draft set of preliminary directions preparatory to a contemplated directions hearing in June or July of this year.

We are finalising the instruction of specialist leading counsel with availability for a two-day hearing in June or July. Our client's counsel of choice has at present very limited availability during that period but anticipates that this might change in the coming weeks. We will therefore require additional time in which to supply available dates for the hearing and also, of necessity, additional time to provide comments on your proposed substantive directions.

We also consider that your draft preliminary directions afford our client insufficient time—a mere 14 days—to file responsive factual and expert evidence. We consider that an interval of 21 days is more appropriate.

In light of the above we propose the following amendments to your draft preliminary directions:

1. The Defendant shall submit to the Plaintiffs their proposed directions within 21 days of the date of the order;

2. The parties shall, within 21 days of the date of the order, submit to the Registry their mutually available dates for a hearing on the first convenient date after 8 June 2025, with a time estimate of 2 days; and
3. The Defendant shall file and serve any evidence in response to the Plaintiffs' evidence within 21 days of service.

We enclose an amended draft consent order reflecting those changes. Please let us know if this can be agreed.

All of our client's rights are reserved.

Yours faithfully,
Conyers Dill & Pearman Limited
